Late Summer 2010 Newsletter

Where has the summer gone? I believe we are in for a long cold winter. I hope you plan to attend the "Fall into Quilts" show sponsored by the Belleville Area Council for the Arts September 24 and 25, and will be setting up a booth to clean out your stash in order that you can fill it with new "stash". I have some spaces left and in case you forgot, the 2-day table rent is $45 for the 2 days. Also, if you wish to enter anything for the show, it is not too late to enter. The things you enter, you can offer for sale if you wish. I have decided we need to have some kind of award or prize for "something". Help me think of a reason to give an award or prize other than the usual Viewer's Choice, Judges Award, etc. Hope you can put the thinking cap on and come up with something fun and different. Also, am inviting anyone with a new technique that you want to share—come prepared and the sharing may result in a prize of some sort as a thank you to a sharing quilter. Course, at the two day show I will be cooking homemade pies, soup, bread and anything else that sounds good on a nice fall day. Admission is only $3. Kids 13 and under are free.

A friend has a big stash of antique quilts in very good condition that she is tired of, so they will be offered for sale. (Good Christmas gift, maybe).

I just got word that Kona Bay is offering 42 different 6 yard bolts to be sold at $6.00 per yard. I understand several of you took advantage of the last offering. What a deal. The instructions are the same as last time. (Remember, these fabrics are normally sold from $9 to 10 per yard. If you like a sale and who doesn't, don't pass this one up. To get your hands on the fabrics at this great price visit www.konabaygifts.com and go to six yard bolts section. Be sure to use the coupon code 2414 when you check out to get your free gift. Good luck at getting on the site first before the fabric is gone.

The Art Show was beautiful and well attended. We, me and this frog in my pocket, are selling homemade fudge (Belleville Bridge Fudge) as a fundraiser for the Arts Council and many bought some Saturday, but mostly everyone wanted some of my homemade pie. It was pretty good.

I'm still special ordering fabric that you might not be able to get at your favorite shop, you don't have to buy the whole bolt because I might want some and you get 25% off 1/2 yard cut or more.

Have some classes coming up. We are doing a circle class in October. For those who missed One Block Wonder in the past, we did that several times lately. Our classes at Threads 'N Treasures are fun and relaxing. I'm still doing the basic sewing class if you need a hand or a refresher, please let me know.

Stay well and hope to see you soon.
